Now is the time for constables, who are fire wardens under the law, to look out for forest fires, and see that all such are subdued in their incipiency. During the past two seasons fires have been kept down to a minimum by the watchfulness of constables, and it is hoped the same vigilance will prevail during this spring season. Let the law be vigorously enforced.

Hon. Peter Berry, with the assistance of a large number of friends and neighbors, celebrated his 54th birthday at his home near Plumer on Friday evening, all kinds of parlor games, dancing, and other amusements in which life-long friends and close neighbors can indulge in at the home of one of their most popular members, furnished the entertainment for the evening, and delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Berry.

The girl who gives way to a desire to gad about the streets and cultivate the acquaintance of young men who act the simpering simpleton is laying the foundation for a useless after life. Ten to one after she is married she will develop into a slatternly gossip, if no greater misfortune befalls her. It is the girl of good sound sense, the girl that loves home and helps mother that wins the model husband and becomes an ornament to womanhood. The girl that does this and devotes some of her time to reading tries to win the esteem of everybody, while the gadding street ornament wins the admiration of those whose admiration is not worth having.

The Commissioners have purchased a second team for work at the poor farm. It is a very handsome span of dapple grays, and was bought from Andy Carson of Neilltown. The sire of this fine team is "Count Retroure," owned by Sam. T. Carson of Stewart's Run. The Commissioners have contracted for the winter's accumulation of manure at the Hotel Agnew stables at so much per load. When the team backed up and hauled away the first load Mr. Agnew wanted to rue bargain, but the Commissioners had evidently "farmed it" before. The wagon load was about 24 feet long with immense side boards, and if the roads keep dry the teamsters think they can take away the fertilizer in about four loads.

The best authors and artists have been hard at work preparing two magnificent souvenir numbers of the Philadelphia Sunday Press, which will be published on April 23 and 30. Superb color pages will add to the artistic beauty of the both editions. The front page of the Grant number shows the splendid monument which will be dedicated by President McKinley in Philadelphia, and the front page of the Dewey number is a reproduction of a magnificent painting on the Olympia, showing him as he looks to-day. Be sure to get both these editions, which will be the handsomest ever issued by a newspaper.

For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the provisions of the bicycle bills introduced by Representative E. W. Pursall, of Warren, and which became a law when Gov. Stone affixed his signature, we reproduce the more important clauses as follows: It is provided that upon petition from at least 25 free-holders, residents of a county, who are bicyclers, the court shall appoint three resident wheelmen as side-path commissioners, to serve without compensation other than necessary expenses. A tax of $1, or so much thereof as may be recommended by the side-path commissioners, shall be paid upon each bicycle in the county. The taxes shall constitute a side-path fund, to be used for construction and maintenance of the paths. Another Parshall bill which passed the house finally and went to the senate, provides that for willfully injuring or obstructing side-paths constructed under the law signed an offender shall be punishable by a fine of $10 or 30 days' imprisonment or both.

Bids for the erection of Forest county's new poor house were opened on Wednesday last in the presence of a large number of interested people.

Each bidder was obliged to accompany his bid with a certified check for $1,000 as a guarantee of good faith. Five firms or individuals had filed bids, but none of them were within the limit which the Commissioners had indicated they ought to be, which was the cause of considerable disappointment to the Board. It was found that in each case the bids on brick were much below those for stone; so the board adopted the brick. Following are the figures in each case:

Constable Bros., Erie, brick, $30,915; stone, $35,675.

Edward Allen, Titusville, brick, $24,750; stone, $28,000.

U. V. Hugloes, Altoona, brick, $24,475; stone, $24,974.50.

C. W. Uldrey, Warren, brick, $28,840; stone, $32,992.

Jas. A. Nixon, Titusville, brick, $23,200; stone, $26,200.

James A. Nixon, according to these figures, being the lowest bidder, was awarded the contract, after he had scaled his bid down to $20,000 by the omission or curtailment of certain equipment machinery. The work on the new home is expected to proceed without delay.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. By all druggists.

Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. Sold by all druggists.
